On a train

Angela and her mom were going home from New York. They got on a train and prepared for a nice trip home. Angela was after such a big city. There were too many cars, buildings and too much noise. It was a very day. Now she was glad to be on a quiet train.

Then the train conductor entered the train. He a smart blue uniform and a special hat with red stripes. He was definitely older than Angela's mom, but not yet an old man. Angela liked the way he smiled as he . As he clicked the passengers' tickets he talked to each of them. Some of the passengers must have known him, since he greeted them by name and asked them about their life or them the latest news. From time to time he sang a part of a song as he checked ticket after ticket.
